

Attractions at Crawford Theatre NEXT WEEK

MON.—

TUES.—

WED.—

THUR.—

FRI.—

SAT.—

"THE GRIM GAME"

Paramount-Artcraft Special

"ON WITH THE DANCE"

with Mae Murray and David Powell
25 and 50c.

"ON WITH THE DANCE"

"EVANGELINE"

Benefit Sisters' Hospital

Prices: 50c. and $1.00

FLORENCE VIDOR IN

"THE FAMILY HONOR"

BRYANT WASHBURN IN

"WHY SMITH LEFT HOME"

LOCAL NEWS.

Miss Florence Kincaid spent Thursday in Pecos on a hurried business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Williams are in town and expect to remain here with friends and relatives for at least a week. Their home is in the Lovington section.

Amos Reeves, well known and prominent business man of Monument, spent part of the week in Carlsbad.

Shafter Ward is in town for a couple of days' stay from the ranch in the mountains west of town.

Mrs. Orrin Matney and son, Oliver Lee, returned Saturday from a visit to the lady's father and sister who reside near Clovis.

Mrs. R. L. Bates and daughter, Zelpha, who have been visiting friends here for a fortnight, will leave for their home in Roswell Monday of next week.

Fred Hindskopf, district manager for the Brotherhood of American Yeomen, has returned from Artesia where he assisted in establishing a branch of that very excellent order.

The Current is glad to learn of the convalescence of Mrs. Keen Barr, of Albuquerque, news of whose illness reached Carlsbad the first of last week. Miss May Geer is with her sister and indications now are that Mrs. Barr will soon be able to be about.

M. Nornhauser, of the Pecos Valley Hide & Fur Company, was a visitor to Roswell Tuesday and was registered among the "Wayfarers".

J. A. Cook, lessee of the Carlsbad Laundry, is spending the week in various parts of Texas, looking after the details of the equipment necessary to begin work, which will be begun in a very short time.

John Plowman and family, of Malaga, left yesterday for Dog Canyon where his brother, Joe, is farming this summer, and where they expect to spend a week or so in the shade and away from the heat.

CHANTILLY TOILET REQUISITES

Another New Line—

TALCUM, — FACE POWDER, — CREAMS, — ROUGE, — TOILET WATER, — PERFUME, ETC. —

The name sounds Frenchy,
The Goods

SMELL FRENCHY

and they're put up in pretty

RED BOXES

that are worth the money whether there's anything in 'em or not to look, and one smell free.

COSTS NOTHING

CORNER

DRUG STORE

THE NYAL STORE

Mrs. Musiek sustained an operation at Sisters Hospital this week and is recovering nicely.

T. E. Rodgers is convalescing rapidly from a recent sick spell and is receiving care at Sisters hospital.

E. L. Kerr, who had been an inmate of Eddy county hospital for some time under medical care, left for his home at Hope yesterday, having sufficiently recovered to render such a course advisable.

Kade Rader, from southwest of town, whose leg was broken by a fall from a horse some two weeks ago, is still confined to his bed in Eddy county hospital although reported improving.

E. C. Love was brought in from the plains country the first of the week and was taken to Eddy county hospital where he was operated on Sunday with good results.

E. Cair, of Edmond, Oklahoma, father of Homer Cair, of this place, came in Wednesday on a visit to his son and family and will probably remain for a couple of weeks, getting acquainted with his grandson and namesake whom he now sees for the first time.

Complete findings of facts and conclusions of law have been filed in the injunction suit of the Public Utilities Company vs. The Carlsbad Light & Power Company, heard before Judge Sam Bratton, of the Fifth Judicial District Court. The findings were in favor of the defendants in the case.

Mrs. J. P. Wangler is an inmate of Sisters' Hospital being laid up with a sprained ankle, from which she is reported as getting along, very well.

Sam Pearce, of the Pearce Brothers, of Pecos, Texas, practical rig builders and contractors is in town today and says real oil development is in better shape today in that section than it has ever been.

All members of Troup No. 1 Boy Scouts are requested to be at the regular meeting Monday night at 7:15. Several matters of importance are to be decided.

BERT RAWLINS, Scout Master.

Mr. and Mrs. Boston Witt and Mrs. Georgia Witt Lusk and three children have been in town since Tuesday, leaving for their home at Lovington this morning.

Will Merchant and wife and Mrs. I. S. Osborne spent the day in Roswell, Wednesday, going up in the Merchant car.

C. E. Snyder and S. L. Myers, the newly appointed assistant general manager of the Santa Fe, were in town over night last night and went on to Pecos this morning, expecting to return this evening. They are on a visit of inspection at this time.

Clarence Bell, cashier of the First National Bank, was off duty a couple of days this week, with a bad case of swollen feet, caused by walking in the water barefoot, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. King, the lady a sister of Miss Nell Atkins, traveling overland from Iowa, arrived in the city the first of the week and after remaining here a couple of days were taken for a camping trip to Black River, Mrs. Sadie Cheatem and Miss Nell Atkins joining the party.

One car of horses was shipped from Carlsbad Wednesday consigned to the owner, Robert Smith, at Magdalena, N. M. Dr. Doss came down from Clovis to inspect these horses before they could be shipped. Mr. Smith says gasoline is selling in his part of the state at from 60 to 75 cents per gallon.

The wool clips of J. R. Bonine, Magby, Etcheverry, Barberia, and others in the vicinity of El Paso Gap, aggregating approximately 100,000 pounds, were shipped to Roswell this week by Joyce-Pruit company for storage until such time as the market advances.

Mrs. Claude Nelson is taking the place of Miss Nell Atkins while the latter is enjoying a few days vacation from her duties at the local freight office.

Eight cars of hay were shipped from Carlsbad this week to points near Kansas City.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Harp and family arrived overland from their home in Plainview, Texas, and are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Moore, getting in yesterday.

OTIS.

Miss Adell Ohnemus returned to her home in Artesia Monday night accompanied by her cousin, Ermenia Grandi, who will visit awhile in Artesia.

Word has been received of the death of Grandpa Potet at his home in California. He has been in poor health for some time. All extend sympathy to the Potet families.

The home of Vernon Middleton at Reclamation camp has been fixed up with new plasterboard and paint. It now looks fine.

Henry Grandi and his father have been on the sick list.

W. L. Dillon expects to leave the first of the week for Hot Wells, below Van Horn, Texas, in the hope of finding relief from rheumatism, from which disease he has been a sufferer for a long time without much change in his condition.

Miss Julia Dunaway, formerly of Carlsbad, received the degree of Bachelor of Pedagogy at the recent commencement at Silver City Normal school and Misses Laura Omega Breeding, Mary Beatrice Merchant and Inez Mylius, all of this city, completed the high school course and received their diplomas.

Misses Ruth Duncan, Gladys Nevegger, Virginia and Mary Thayer and Vera Carder were among the young ladies in attendance at Silver City Normal who returned to their respective homes in this city last Saturday.

T. A. Ezell was in town the first of the week on business and in attendance at the water hearing concerning Pecos river water being sought for Texas lands which was held in Carlsbad this week. He has many friends here who are glad to welcome him on his frequent visits from his home in Sweetwater, Texas.

Dave Clemmons and family came in from their home in the mountains Friday night and stayed several days in town. Mr. Clemmons was here for the purpose of settling up the estate of his mother, who deceased about a year ago. They had with them their baby daughter, Dora, about a month old, this being the young lady's first visit to the county seat.

Carl Bird and Homer Rhodes, business men from Roswell, spent the day in the City Beautiful Tuesday, motoring down from their respective homes on a business visit.

J. A. Hughes was a visitor to Roswell this week. Wednesday, transacting business while in that city.

Mrs. W. C. Reiff and Mrs. Henry Robb, of Tyrone, this state, who have been in town over a week, expect to leave Saturday or Monday for their home. The ladies were entertained last Sunday at the Wm. H. Mullane home west of town. Mrs. Henry Dickson and Mrs. Mullane being the joint hostesses and all present having a pleasant time. Mesdames Reiff and Robb have the love and esteem of all Carlsbad people who have known them for years, and known only good of them. Mrs. Reiff has property in Carlsbad and a grave in City cemetery to make this place home, and Mrs. Robb, when teaching here and in social life, wielded an influence that can never be forgotten.

Collin Gerrella was in from his ranch near Queen and remained in the city over Sunday. He likes all the other mountaineers, report everything pretty and green in the Guadalupe.

Postmaster John Wells advises us that some firms in Carlsbad are incorrectly informed concerning the law on the registration of letters, and have been mailing them with the ordinary mail. In order that these letters may not be overlooked they must be handed in at the window before 6 o'clock each day.

Base Ball

Sunday, August 1st

Artesia

VS.

Carlsbad

With the addition of H. Etz, G. Etz, C. Francis, and L. M. Miller, from Arizona, this should be a fast game. BIG BOY ETZ will be on the mound for the visitors. He won from Roswell club yesterday by 3 to 2 score.

Firemen's Park

Game Called Promptly at 3

ADMISSION: 25 and 50 Cents

Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Daugherty and Lissie Lee Bumback, their granddaughter, have returned from a ten day's vacation trip which they spent in the Capitan mountains. They made the trip overland and had a very delightful outing; their camp was made on the J. D. Walker ranch near Encino and the company of these old friends was an added pleasure. One day was spent at Pine Lodge, that famous resting place for tourists. Mrs. Walker accompanying them. The cool air and the lovely mountain scenery to say nothing of the pure spring water, made amends for the anticipated fishing which Mr. Daugherty had planned and which of course he had to forego.

Boy Scouts of Troup No. 1 have secured the novelty concession for the American Legion Carnival. They have placed their order for supplies and will have something worth while for sale.

HONORING A CARLSBAD VISITOR.

Miss Ruth Parsons of Roswell was honor guest at the home of Miss Mary Lee Newton, Monday afternoon. The girls had a fine time playing "Five Hundred". Miss Dorothy Swigart making high score and being rewarded by a prize of a box of stationery which was also given to Helen Melvain who made low score. The honor guest also received stationery as a guest prize. A delightful afternoon was spent with delicious refreshments at the close. The following enjoyed the afternoon's pleasures:

Misses Ruth Parsons, of Roswell, Lorene Powell, Frances Cooke, Helen Melvain, Nettie Smith, Grace Jones, Dorothy Roberts, Wardle Bates, Nellie Linn, Helen Wright, Lillian Crawford, Garnet La Rue, Mesdames Frank Kindle, Harry McKim, Iron S. Rowe and John Snow, of Denver, Colorado.

Joyce - Pruitt Co.

DID YOU EVER HEAR OF "SKINNERS"? Of course there are several kinds, but we mean "Skinner's" Macaroni. If you have never used "Skinner's", you do not really know how good Macaroni can be. The next time, order and insist on "Skinner's" in clean, sealed packages. Also Vermicelli, Spaghetti and Egg Noodles.

Price, per package, any kind 10c.

SPECIAL FOR SATURDAY, JULY 31 AND MONDAY, AUG. 2ND.

No. 10 Cans "P. V." Apples, per can 50c.
No. 10 Cans "C. A. P." Peaches, per can 55c.
No. 10 Cans Loganberries, per can $1.75
No. 10 Cans Red Pitted Cherries, per can $1.95
No. 10 Cans "Tick Tock" Apricots 75c.

PURE MAPLE AND CANE SYRUP:

No. 10 Cans "Bliss Favorite" per can..... $2.33
No. 5 Cans "Bliss Favorite" per can..... $1.22

Joyce-Pruitt Co.

"We Want Your Trade"

GROCERIES

57—Phones—199

AUTO TIRES